

URBAN ANTHROPOLOGY™

and

Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development

VOLUME 38, NUMBER 2-4 SUMMER, FALL WINTER, 2009

SPECIAL ISSUE: Transnational Mexican Migration

Alicia Re Cruz 121

When Immigrants Root
and Transnational Communities Grow

Tamar Diana Wilson 149

Beyond Bounded Communities:
Network-Mediated Migration
from an Urban Colonia in Mexicali, Mexico

Karla Kral 169

A Preliminary Understanding of Gender and Education in the Context of Transnational Mexican Migration

David P. Sandell 203

A Space of Their Own:
Stories About Work and Migration from Mexico

| | |
|---|------------|
| Gregory Gullette | 235 |
| Transnational Participatory Development: Economic and Cultural Flows in Oaxaca, Mexico | |
| Lourdes Gutiérrez Nájera | 269 |
| Transnational Migration, Conflict, and Divergent Ideologies of Progress | |
| Victor García and Laura González | 303 |
| Labor Migration, Drug Trafficking Organizations, and Drug Use: Major Challenges for Transnational Communities in Mexico | |
| Deborah A. Boehm | 345 |
| “¿Quien Sabe?”: Deportation and Temporality Among Transnational Mexicans | |
| Luis Plascencia | 375 |
| The Undocumented Mexican Migrant Question: Re-Examining the Framing of Law and Illegalization in the United States | |
